

DREXEL L. HALLAWAY

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 1995–1998 NatWest Securities Corporation, New York, NY
Associate, Restaurants & Gaming. Equity research coverage of the restaurant and gaming industries. Co-authored company and industry reports; created and maintained earnings models and valuations; had frequent contact with company managements and institutional clients. During my tenure, the senior analyst progressed from unranked, through #8 (1996), to #5 (1997), in the Restaurant sector of Institutional Investor’s annual poll.
- 1994–1995 PaineWebber Incorporated, New York, NY
Assistant, Equity Research. Worked in the wireless and wireline telecommunications services sectors.
- 1993 LeafStone, Inc., New York, NY
Temporary-services firm that placed me in successful project assignments at TIAA-CREF, Morgan Stanley and PaineWebber.
- 1988–1994 Professional Career as operatic baritone. Freelanced during a significant portion of these years as a principal artist for companies like:
- Palm Beach Opera, West Palm Beach, FL;
 - Opera de Monterrey, Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico;
 - Schubertiades at Sotheby’s, London, England (solo concerts);
 - Tampa Bay Opera Corporation, Tampa, FL.

EDUCATION

- 2000–present Ph.D. Candidate, Computer Science, Columbia University
May 2004 M.Phil. Computer Science, Columbia University (expected)
December 2001 M.S. Computer Science, Columbia University
1998 Fordham University, New York, NY (Comp. Science, toward M.S. program)
1987–1988 Palm Beach Community College, West Palm Beach, FL
1984–1986 Manhattan School of Music, New York, NY
1977–1982/98 B.A., General Studies (Music and Math concentrations), Hobe Sound Bible College, Hobe Sound, FL

PERSONAL

Excellent computer skills: Operating system expertise in DOS, OS/2, Windows NT/XP/2003 Server Domain Administration; Some UNIX; Strong office software skills (Excel, Word, Access, etc.); Familiarity with research data sources: First Call, DRI, FactSet, StockVal, stock quote systems.
Other interests: opera, computers, internet, electronics, networking, etc.