

Directions to the Columbia University, Center for Computational Learning Systems (CCLS) conference room, from the 116th and Broadway subway stop:

If you arrive by the number 1 subway, get off at 116th and Broadway (see the ■ below at the lower right corner of the map). The entrance to the Interchurch center is halfway between 119th and 120th on Claremont Avenue (Claremont is the N/S road between Riverside Drive and Broadway). When you enter, you will need to sign in for room 850, which is the office suite for CCLS. Room 850 is on the eighth floor.

You will be directed to the conference room once you enter the CCLS suite.
