SITSEEING HIGHLIGHTS

Air and Space Museum

The world's most visited museum houses the Wright Brothers' 1903 Flyer, Lindbergh's Spirit of St Louis, the Apollo 11 lunar command module and an incredible collection of aviation and space technology treasures. Samuel P Langley Theater shows spectacular IMAX films daily (admission). Albert Einstein Planetarium presents several programs daily (admission).

Corcoran Gallery of Art

Washington's oldest art collection features Dutch and Flemish masterpieces, French Impressionists and post-Impressionists, and American art from colonial times to the present. Every year, the Corcoran presents a diverse program of special exhibitions.

FDR Memorial

A 7.5-acre site near the Jefferson Memorial, this memorial depicts the 12 pivotal years of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's presidency through a series of four outdoor gallery rooms.

Folger Shakespeare Library

Private, non-profit research library with one of the world's finest collections of Shakespeare and Renaissance materials.

Jefferson Memorial

Beneath the marble rotunda, the 19-foot statue of the third US president is surrounded by passages from the Declaration of Independence and other famous Jefferson writings.

John F Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

Six magnificent theaters present the best of drama, dance, ballet, music, comedy, films and commissioned works. Home of the National Symphony Orchestra, Washington Opera and the American Film Institute.

Lincoln Memorial

This grand monument is a tribute to President Abraham Lincoln and the nation he fought to preserve during the Civil War (1861-1865).

National Arboretum

More than 400 acres of trees, shrubs, flowering plants, picnic grounds, herb gardens and the famous bonsai collection.

National Gallery of Art

One of the finest collections in the world, illustrating major achievements in painting, sculpture, and graphic arts from the Middle Ages to the present, plus changing exhibitions from around the world.

National Geographic Society

Explorers Hall features "Geographica", an interactive exhibit about the earth and the fragile balance among its inhabitants.

National Mall

A splendid green park area extending approximately two miles from the US Capitol to the Washington Monument. Lining either side of the park near the Capitol are 200-year-old American elm trees, several of the Smithsonian Institution museums, National Archives, National Gallery of Art and US Botanic Gardens.

The Phillips Collection

America's first museum of modern art features Renoir's Luncheon of the Boating Party, and works by Cézanne, Bonnard, Braque, Daumier, Dove, El Greco, Manet, Matisse, O'Keefe and Picasso. Classical music program every Sunday (September through May).

The Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center

One of Washington's newest attractions and home to the new Visitor Information Center. A food court, fine dining restaurant, cafes, and impressive works of art dot this official World Trade Center.

Smithsonian Institution

Washington is home to the world's most famous museum complex. Encompassing more than a dozen different buildings, such as the Arthur M Sackler Gallery, the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, the National Air and Space Museum, as well as the National Zoological Park.

Union Station

This beautifully restored train station houses more than 125 stores, restaurants, a food court and a nine-screen cinema complex.

US Capitol

Under the magnificent white dome, senators and representatives meet to shape US legislative policy.

Washington Monument

One of the tallest masonry structures in the world, this majestic obelisk was dedicated in 1885 to the memory of the first US president.

Washington National Cathedral

A 14th-century-style Gothic cathedral, garden and shops set on 57 acres at the city's highest point. Observation gallery offers a magnificent view of Washington and surrounding area.

White House

Home of every US president except George Washington.
