Faculty Positions in Computer Science

Columbia Engineering's Department of Computer Science at Columbia University in New York City invites applications for tenure-track faculty positions. Appointments at the assistant professor (without tenure) and associate professor (without tenure) levels will be considered.

Applications are specifically sought in any of the areas that fall under the umbrella of Computer Science with particular emphasis on, but not limited to: Databases, Computational Biology, and Human-Computer Interaction.

Candidates must have a Ph.D. or its professional equivalent by the starting date of the appointment. Applicants for this position at the Assistant Professor and untenured Associate Professor level must have the potential to do pioneering research and to teach effectively.

The successful candidate should contribute to the advancement of the Department in these areas by developing an externally funded research program and contributing to the undergraduate and graduate educational mission of the Department, and is expected to establish multidisciplinary research and educational collaborations with academic departments and units across Columbia University. The Department is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, to the diversity and excellence of the academic community.

For additional information and to apply, please see: <http://engineering.columbia.edu/faculty-job-opportunities>. Applications should be submitted electronically and include the following: curriculum-vitae including a publication list, a research statement, a teaching statement, contact information for three people who can provide letters of recommendation, and up to three pre/reprints of scholarly work. The position will close no sooner than December 15, 2013, and will remain open until filled.

Applicants can consult www.cs.columbia.edu for more information about the Department.

Columbia is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer with a strong commitment to the quality of faculty life.
