

The NSA and Bulk Surveillance

Birds of the Week...

Guest lecturer: Nick Weaver, Berkeley International Computer Science Institute

Bird of the Week

The crow is the traditional bird associated with SIGINT personnel. And unlike all other birds of the week, this one is from elsewhere, to symbolize that the NSA only operates abroad...

American crow, Great Barrington, MA, August 18, 2019

Guest Birds of the Week

Guess falcons in honor of Annie and Grinnelle, the falcons that live on the Berkeley campus.
