

Rules for the rest of the semester

- No extension to any homework unless signed and requested by a dean or the homework has major errors
  - Submissions more than 15 minutes delayed will get zero credit
  - We get to decide which errors are major
- No extra make up exams irrespective of your scores on midterm/final
  - Do not bother sending emails
- All grades assigned by us are final unless you can point out a concrete mistake in grading
  - We reserve the right to assign (or not assign ) partial credit as we see fit
- No changes to the participation credits on request
- No extra office hours on demand. Please plan accordingly. I believe the TAs have been more than accommodating to you outside their office hours.
- No sample questions for the final, treat midterm questions as samples
